

Annual Review of Animal Protocol CRI IACUC

All approved animal protocols are valid for three years. However, CRI policy requires that all animal use be reviewed annually by the CRI-IACUC. Notices are sent to principle investigators 2 months prior to the deadline. The IACUC requests returning this form 1 month before the deadline.

Protocol Number: Original Approval Date:

Protocol Title:

Principal Investigator:

Please answer the following questions. All YES responses must be explained in an attachment.

1. Are there any proposed changes to the approved project with respect to: experimental procedures, the animal model, animal numbers, or animal pain or discomfort?
 No Yes , explain.....
2. Has the availability of alternatives to the use of animals changed in the past year?
 No Yes , explain.....
3. Have any adverse effects or unanticipated problems been observed while conducting this study?
 No Yes , explain.....
4. Are there any changes in personnel, i.e. investigators, and technicians involved in animal procedures?
 No Yes , explain.....
5. Briefly describe the progress and results of the study to date.

Signature of PI:

Date:

IACUC approval:

Date: